

I believe in the freedom of not wanting to receive telemarketers phone calls. I have registered from the first day and feel the State of Wisconsin has a much better program then the one the Federal Government is proposing.